At our September Meeting

West Central Region Vice President Robert B. Reed provided us with SAR Centennial Video Presentation which was enjoyed by every one. We hope that VP Reed will be able to attend more of our meetings.

We 18 members present plus Mrs. McGee and John Pacheco Jr. who is completing his application for membership papers for a total of 20.

Nominating committee for selecting Officers for the year of 1991 will be Jack Seymour, Jim Smith & Martin Miller were appointed and approved. They will recommend their slate of Officers to be Voted on at the November meeting. Of course there may be names of other candidates submitted from the floor for consideration at this time and voted on per our by-laws.

Your president and compatriot Jack Seymour attended the Nationalization at Curtis Hixon Hall and passed our American Flags to the 250 New Citizens sworn in.

Cyril Gamber, Eagle Scout Award Chairman, reported that some 51 Eagle scouts in Hillsborough County will be sent invitations to participate in this essay contest. He is asking for some compatriot to assist him in preparing letters and information to mail to those Eagle Scouts. Anyone willing to assist him in any way please contact him.

Jim Smith, Awards Chairman, reported that Colonel Ryan would be the new commanding Officer of the ROTC programs effective January 1991.

Charles Bearss, Treasurer, reported that as of September 14th we had a balance of 691.64 in the bank.
